

Ann Williams Earns Endorsement of AFL-CIO

December 8, 2009—The Illinois AFL-CIO today endorsed Ann Williams in her race for the State House, affirming that Ann is the candidate who best understands the issues affecting the lives of working women and men in the 11th District.

Representing one million members statewide, the AFL-CIO recognizes that Ann has the independence and experience to serve as an effective voice for your concerns in Springfield: Ann will fight to save and create jobs. She will be a strong advocate for the rights of employees in the workplace. And she will champion real relief from oppressive property taxes that threaten the dream of homeownership for so many District residents.

This is an exciting time in Ann's campaign — and you can be a vital part of the growing momentum!

Stop by Ann's Holiday Open House this Saturday, December 12, 10 a.m. to noon, at 3359 N. Lincoln Ave. Meet the candidate, learn more about her positions on the issues that concern you, and find out what you can do to help.
