Ann Williams Earns Endorsement of 43rd Ward Democratic Candidate for State House Seat Thrilled with Support

Saturday, Jan. 9 (Chicago) – Ann Williams, democratic candidate for the vacated 11th House District, recently earned the endorsement of Chicago’s 43rd Ward Democratic Organization.

“We heard from all the candidates in this race and we believe that Ann Williams is the best fit for this district,” said Michele Smith, Democratic Committeeman of the 43rd Ward. “Not only did she impress us with her knowledge of the issues facing state government, but also with her integrity and work ethic.”

Ann Williams received the endorsement this past Saturday, Jan. 9th at the 43rd Ward’s endorsement session. She was endorsed along with others including Lisa Madigan, Mike Quigley and Toni Preckwinkle.

“This area of Chicago has always had the good fortune of having strong and independent leaders,” said Ann Williams, democratic candidate for State Rep (11th District). “I am honored to have earned the endorsement of Michele Smith and the 43rd Ward Organization.”
